6. Retired rate information

To be considered for a retired rate of membership, members must:

- be fully retired from employment and will not be returning to gainful employment
- notify Governance Institute within 14 days if your income situation changes and
- have a nil personal exertion income.*

Personal exertion income — income derived directly from the effort of a person, such as labour or skill.*

If you are unsure if this form is right for you, please contact the Membership team on (02) 9223 5744 or 1800 251 849 (toll free) to discuss your situation.

Membership rates

- You need to apply once for this rate of membership. The retired rate of membership will be applied to subsequent years of membership.
- Governance Institute may request documentation to support your request at the time of application or any time during the current membership year.

You may have to re-apply for this membership rate option should a change in circumstances (such as a return to income generation) occur.*

CCPD requirement

Compulsory CPD is not applicable to retired members. However, should your situation change resulting in you returning to gainful employment, you must notify Governance Institute within 14 days, as this will affect your CPD requirement.
